My respected Guardian
Nomoste!

My name is Somikshya Baniya. I live in HemJo village. I read in class 7 in Snow View English Boarding School. I am fine here. I hope you are also fine there. In our Dashain and Tihar vacation holidays before our school start and we came school now again. There are three members in my family. My family was small but happy I am happy in my family members. I love school and education. I got 63% in Second Term Exam. My father and mother wanted I will be nurse in a future. Our school is my temple because I got education to make my future. In this occasion our school founder Bishnu madam and Jagat Sir love me so much. Bishnu Madam has give me so much love like an education to make me good person. I feel very lucky because I take admission in my lovely school Snow View English Boarding school. I heard about my guardian. Thanku you very much for my scholarship to pay my school months in every month. You are a living God. So, no word to show you. You can feel in my heart

Thanku you! hoping to see you one day.

Sincenely yours
Somikshya Baniya
